MOTION TO EXTEND TIME TO FILE STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

Comes now Jamieson CAPEX Fund, LLC (“CAPEX” or the “Debtor”), by and through undersigned proposed counsel, pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 9006(b), and moves to extend, by one week, the deadline to file a statement of financial affairs herein, and in support thereof states as follows:

The Debtor filed full schedules with its petition for relief but is yet to docket a statement of financial affairs. While information has been gathered and a preliminary draft has been prepared, the process has been slowed by undersigned counsel being largely offline with COVID. It is reasonably anticipated a final draft should be able to be completed and filed in the coming days; it is equally anticipated the filing will prove relatively mundane and the added time is not being sought because of any esoteric complexities or anomalies.

Insofar as the meeting of creditors in this case is not being held until October 24, 2024, DE #13, and the extension sought herein would only be through October 14, 2024 (notwithstanding that date being a federal holiday), all parties in interest would have ample time to review the statement of financial affairs in advance of the meeting of creditors. This should, in turn, ensure no prejudice is occasioned by the brief delay sought herein.

WHEREFORE, the Debtor respectfully prays the deadline to file a statement of financial affairs be extended to and through October 14, 2024 (notwithstanding that date being a holiday), and for such other and further relief as may be just and proper.

Respectfully Submitted,

Dated: October 7, 2024
